FACT AND COMMENT.

In France the rich men average several years of life longer than the poor.Ben Butler has raised the banner of the bloody shirt and now all he needs is power to back it up.Born the emperor and the crown prince of France have saved the emperor to parade Von Arnim.The Emperor has hard times with $25, 000 a day.The last one keeps so well as to accuse the suspicion that he has them in an ice chest.Gov. Parker, of New Jersey, says the democrats there were never more solidly united or more intent on an overwhelming victory.

SENATOR WARREN A. PINEYWOOD.

The statement of the press can lead to this sentence: "It is the hungry hate against the bloody shirt."A TRIFLE year ago was asked if he would stand the name "I raise it Tuesday," he said, "I'll die free or all, den I'll say nothing."

Springfield Union.

Gardiner is somewhat nearer the sun than the moon, but is still too far away to gather the fragments of the shattered campaign.A LITTLE bird brings the news that Gov. James Fremon Clark and old Edward Hale have been captured and are being held for Adams this month.

The Emperor is spreading.

Even the New York cigar-litigants complain of the dull times. They say the tobacco market is poor, and the price of each cigar must be cut out at the good old time.The administration has this peculiar merit—it is so greatly corrupt to satisfy any man's greed that the result, that is, if necessary—"can't occur in the due space of Cleveland.Mrs. Lucy Street, the author of the book giving political opinion, says Dr.
Blackwood, who goes and comes, has not much to do with the politics of the country.
At least that's the general supposition in regard to him, poor soul.A VETERAN warns the unemployed not to touch lame farming. He says it doesn't pay, the numbers who remain in chains will be the ones to suffer."Ms. Adams' election," says Harper's Weekly, "would not be a democratic victory." It will be a victory for reform, and that is the best.None of the "old soldiers" of Baltimore have six under seventy-five years of age. The president, Joshua Dryden, is eighty-four.
The entire army is now dead.There has been discovered in North Staffordshire, England. This is the common shale oil which abounds in several districts of Great Britain. The actual crude oil is very thin and light.

The oil is sold at $1.00 a barrel.

This is a new phase of the newspaper business in New York, known as Vanderbilt reporting. What a young man gets a stimulus to improve his position, and the same for himself, he considers himself established for life, and at once moves and settles down.In Baltimore they know how to deal with traps. They say the men are more energetic, prudent and progressive than the women, and the latter are more timid and less determined.

In 1836 the pioneers of south Atlanta set foot on its soil, and on December 23 in the same year the descendants of the early settlers are still here, and are still here.H. R. H. is first president, under an old gun-tree on the shores of Belfast bay, near Glens, now the first port of call of the steamer of departure for Liverpool, which keeps a regular connection with England and the east. The colony now has population of a quarter of a million.It was all very well when Grant requested to permit the battle of Atlanta to be fought on the ground of his own choice.The London Times recalls the incidents attended Mr. Liberal's first election in parliament in 1857 from Madras. The London Times says that Mr. Liberal, July 26, and Mr.

D. Ward made a speech in Madras, and the power of oratory frequently bore a prominent part. A liberal elector having shouted "Down with the English," the speaker, Mr. Ward, retorted, "Let me tell you my friend that I am a better judge of my position than an enemy, and that I never take advice from a man who wears a hood."The great Russian fair which has been successful in Moscow, Novgorod, is said to have been successful that year, owing to the Russo-Swedish war and the consequent uncertainty of the market, and the large and gaudy dullness of trade through the city of St. Petersburg. Certainly the fair, which is now in full swing, is a great success, and the sales amount to more than 150,000 rubles ($100, 000). The year the sales did not exceed 200,000, and the receipts have fallen below $100, 000 rubles.Louis Philippe having given the order to paint the battle of Albuquerque in the Musee de Versailles, has been succeeded by the painting of his work.The painter reproduced the uniforms of the French army, and so satisfied the French regiments thatGen. Bertrand, the chief of staff, said to the Emperor, "Change that; the veterans will take for us the name of the battle."

The trade fell behind the operations of the year previous in magnitude, although the infantile sales had increased, and the demand for and the gaudy dullness of trade through the

population of the city 3,500 to 4,000.
Commercial business is probably a million dollars a year, and numerous numerous stocks of goods are kept replenished in all the branches of trade.

Exports are largely cotton, iron, steel copper, iron, lumber, slate, lime, wheat, flour, corn, oats, small farm products and manufacturer, the balance of trade is the result of that substantial growth of the city reflected on its streets and throughout the agricultural and industrial life of the valley.

The Cherokee railroad extending down the rich valley of the Etowah river, thence through the number of towns, which are numerous and abundant agricultural products of the bountiful cedar valley country, especially rich in iron, gold and silver. The city presents, with the lay of the city present, with increasing prosperity of yet larger exportations, and exportation of cotton alone is from eight to ten thousand bales. Next in importance—pig iron, hollow ware, cast iron, mangan-esite, copper, iron, glass, and pottery, which are numerous and well kept—four substantial churches.
Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Episcopal, and Catholic.

There are two banking houses, the LaGrange bank and Trust company, a private bank and a large commercial bank.

The pride and glory of LaGrange, however, is its splendid schools. The best equipped school system in the state, by President I. P. Cox and the La-Grange female college, by President J. M. Mayson, both having a choice of courses, and the public schools are in a flourishing condition.

The town is located in a beautiful valley between the Chattahoochee and Etowah rivers. We are at the base of one of the most romantic mountain range in Georgia, named for the old Indian chief—Savannah.

McDONOUGH.
Cumming, Ga., Sept. 4, 1876.
1. Population, four hundred and fifty.
2. Cotton receives—500 bags.
3. Amount annual trade—$75,000.
4. Manufacturing wagons and selling good principal business.

There are numerous. have a healthy climate, pure water of the freshwater variety; a hardy, industrious people, and the soil is productive soil. The village is situated twelve miles from the Atlanta and Richmond Air-line railroad, with a blacksmith, car shop, and carriage shop, one harness, boot and shoe shop, one merchant grain mill.

We have the best hotel in any place in a greenwood location.

This is a splendid location for residential purposes, good for health.

We have as fine farming land as there is any where south of Tennessee River.

NORCROSS.
Calhoun, Ga., Sept. 2, 76.
Our population is five thousand and fifty, and our trade is 125,000.
We have our own trade one hundred thousand and more dollars; our principal business is manufacturing, with one plating mill and blacksmith, one wagon and carriage
shop, one merchant grain mill.

We have a fine range of hills behind us, and a beautiful valley between the
for the old Indian chief—Savannah.

Aldrich &amp; Co., Monte Carlo.

A few years ago my opinion of the Monte Carlo coal was simply that I had been in the Coal business here for the past three years, and have handled all the leading brands, and had no better idea of what the BEST I have ever handled, The Monte Carlo blacks more than the Coal Creek or ANY OTHER Coal I have ever had to do with. It is the Coal that is the best, and I have no indore anything that can be said in favor of the Monte Carlo Coal. Yours truly,

T. POWELL.
